

Beware Mark Carney's 'Partners 4 Malthusianism'

Sept. 21, 2026—On Sept. 20, London's Financial Times published an op-ed entitled, "Multilateralism is Not Idealism, It is a Necessity." The authors are President Lula da Silva of Brazil, President William Ruto of Kenya, President of the European Council António Costa, and Canadian Prime Minister Mark Carney. They write, "...we are coming together with a new initiative: 'Partners for Multilateralism.' P4M is not about creating another exclusive bloc or another international bureaucracy. Its purpose is the opposite: to create a flexible, open framework for countries from different regions and political traditions that are willing to work across divides, to build coalitions for reform and to translate shared principles into practical action."

Whatever the other signers may have in mind with this association of so-called "middle powers," Tony Blair-clone Mark Carney has demonstrated that his intention is the implementation of King Charles' genocidal "Global Britain" green agenda. Charles has made no secret of his opinion that the world can only sustain one billion people, and financier climate activist Carney, who did a stint as UN Special Envoy on Climate Action and Finance after his term as governor of the Bank of England, has been the enforcer of financial lending policies to deprive developing nations of efficient forms of energy in the name of "curbing CO₂ emissions." Lack of abundant reliable energy is an effective way to increase death rates.

What King Charles' loyal subject Mark Carney is actually preparing you for, is a state of global war and mass genocide. Do not be taken in by his shallow, innocent-sounding statements. Many people, including American economist Jeffrey Sachs, were fooled by Carney when he spoke at the World Economic Forum in Davos this past January. Against the backdrop of President Trump's bizarre and illegal kidnapping of the president of Venezuela, Carney presented himself as a reasonable, mild-mannered statesman, opposing the old colonial order, (except, that he failed to condemn the egregious military action in Venezuela). In reality, Carney was at Davos in order to establish a "NATO bank" to prepare for war with nuclear superpower Russia.

Officially named the "Defence, Security and Resilience Bank" (DSR Bank), Carney's NATO bank is to be headquartered in Canada. While Carney was calling for the "middle-level powers" to unite against the large powers, so far, the nations which have pledged to join his bank include Albania, Belgium, Greece, Latvia, Luxembourg, Romania, Türkiye, and Ukraine. Ukraine has been bled of most of its population in a senseless proxy war against Russia and is in a state of economic collapse. Among these nations, only Türkiye could be considered a middle power and is merely hedging its bets. Türkiye has no interest in a war with Russia.

At the World Economic Forum in Davos, Canadian Prime Minister Carney was proposing to do precisely the opposite of what his Financial Times co-authors advocate. Carney intends to divide the world into blocks and exacerbate and fund the wars that are currently ongoing for the purpose of bailing out a bankrupt Western financial system and reducing the human population.

As the Global Majority, represented by BRICS+, the SCO and China's Belt and Road Initiative, among others, seeks to establish a new order of relations, based on the UN Charter, the Western world is returning to a barbaric state of feudalism, presided over by a bunch of Epstein-pervert billionaires.

In response to Donald Trump's reckless and illegal invasion of Venezuela, I declared my candidacy for president of the United States in the 2028 election cycle. However, my campaign is not about 2028; it is about making sure that mankind arrives at 2028 in better circumstances than we currently find ourselves.

Instead of being seduced by deceptive blather from central bankers like Mark Carney, think for yourself about how the future should look. It is time to ask some tough questions:

Why has the United Nations been unable to stop the ongoing genocide against the Palestinian people?

What kind of reforms could be made to give the global majority greater voice?

What can we as Americans do to change the policy of the United States?

It is a healthy sign that the American people are rejecting AIPAC-funded candidates and electing individuals who have taken a public stand against the atrocities being committed by the Israeli regime funded and armed by the United States. However, many of these candidates do not realize that supporting Ukraine in a losing war against Russia is part of the same operation. You cannot establish a peaceful new paradigm if you are advocating for war against Russia and China. (The line you have been fed about Russia's "unprovoked invasion" of Ukraine is a complete fabrication, and Ukraine is anything but a democracy. Space does not permit elaboration on that point here, but suffice it to say that the current Ukrainian regime is honoring Hitler-collaborators like Stepan Bandera and Andriy Melnyk while it arrests and assassinates its opposition.)

The good news, and the bad news for the billionaire elites, is that the current Western financial system is headed for a major crash. The insane actions of the U.S. Treasury Secretary, Soros-man Scotty Bessent are serving to hasten the inevitable doom of the trans-Atlantic system. The question is: will we plunge headlong into thermonuclear war, or can we mobilize the American people to demand that our government return to its Constitutional principles of defending and promoting the general welfare?

I joined the campaign of then-presidential candidate Lyndon LaRouche 38 years ago in order to do exactly that. At the time, AIPAC, the ADL, the FBI and the lying news media still had the upper hand. They don't any more. Let us declare Wall Street and the City of London bankrupt, and reorganize the system for peace and prosperity abroad and at home.

Stop listening to Mark Carney and join my campaign!
